MEETING DATE: August 16, 2006

ITEM WORDING

Approval of Resolution terminating the ambulance service agreement dated September 17, 1997 between Monroe County Board of County Commissioners as governing Board for Municipal Services Taxing District 6 and the Key Largo Volunteer Ambulance Corps, Inc., and all addenda thereto, in accordance with Section 30 of said agreement, effective midnight September 30, 2006; providing an alternative termination date if necessary.

ITEM BACKGROUND

The Key Largo Fire and EMS District was created on June 8, 2005, the effective date of the bill that created it. The referendum was for the purposes of taxation and to elect a governing board, which had to be voted upon by the electorate within the district by October 4, 2005.

Although the Key Largo Fire and EMS District existed and had a governing body as of October 4, 2005, it had no money and borrowed funds from the County to begin operation, and in addition elected to continue functioning under the existing service agreements with the County until their official transition effective October 1, 2006.

Section 30 of the service agreement allows termination without cause by giving sixty (60) days written notice. (See attached page 9 of Agreement)

On July 25, 2006, a written notice was prepared by Fire Chief Clark Martin to Key Largo Volunteer Ambulance Corps, Inc. stating the intent of the County to terminate the agreement as of midnight September 30, 2006, contingent upon Board approval. (See attached Written Notice letter)
